Lost Industries of Southwark

Southwark once was a major centre of Industry – it hosted large scale Industries associated with the Sea, shipbuilding and transport. It was also the home to many processing industries including the Europe’s largest Leather

7 Is this a new project?

Yes  No

If no, explain briefly the history of the project
I have created the proposal and have sent it for comments to several leaders of the local community with favourable response.

8 Who (community group, ethnic group, etc.) do you intend to benefit from your project?

There are three main target groups for the project. The first are the school children in the area who will receive an educational resource pack

The second target is the older people in the area who were once part of those industries whose memories will

9 Please tell us what the aims of your project are and how you will know if you have been successful.

The aim of the project is to increase awareness of the lost industries of Southwark and the lessons that can be learnt from it.

The project can be evaluated first by the production of:

- 1. Creation of walk
- 2. Creation of education resources and web

10 Where will your project be based (Please state a specific location, e.g. Birmingham)? Southwark London
